Policies and Training relating to Modern Slavery within the whole organisation

Monitor Group is committed to ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in our supply chain or in any part of our business. Our Anti-slavery Policy reflects our commitment to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business relationships and to implementing and enforcing effective systems and controls to ensure slavery and human trafficking is not taking place anywhere within our supply chain.

Due Diligence Processes

As part of our initiative to identify and mitigate risk we will;-

- Internally review our supply chain to evaluate human trafficking risks and slavery risks.
- Conduct supplier audits which review all aspects of the supply chain including safety, human trafficking, child labour and other legal requirements.

Training

To ensure a high level of understanding of the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking in our supply chain and our business, we provide training to relevant members of staff. All directors have been briefed on the subject.

This statement is made in pursuant to section 54 (1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes our group's slavery and human trafficking statement for the current financial year.
